Welcome to
CS Research Day 2015

Ola Ringdahl
P-O Östberg
Why a research day?

- Chance for all researchers at the department to meet
- Present our research to the public and other researchers
- Foster collaboration within and between research groups at the department
- Provide a forum for discussion of research related topics
What will happen today?

• 9 Speakers
• Common theme:
  – Why is your research important? – Introduction to the field
  – What can it be used for? – E.g. applications, what could the public be interested in?
  – How does it relate to other research? – What is interesting from a research perspective?
• Panel-led plenary discussion (at 13.55)
  – Brief group discussion on the research done at the department and what we collectively see in the future.
  – Led by Helena Lindgren, Erik Elmroth, Thomas Hellström, and Martin Berggren.
• Coffee at 10.20 and 14.30
• Lunch at 12.00 at Hjortron in Universum (only registered)
• After Work at pub Rött (~17.00)
